

Letter Writing Workshop
Israel Advocacy and Confronting Media Bias
Sunday, July 27, 2014
8:00 pm - 9:00 pm
Temple Israel of Natick

Have you wanted to learn more about anti-Israel bias in the media and how to respond to it?

This workshop is offered without charge. We especially encourage high school and college students to participate.

This letter writing workshop will help you learn the secrets of letter-writing and provide you with the knowledge, resources and contacts you need to feel confident about writing your own responses to anti-Israel articles, editorials, op-eds and letters.

This workshop is hosted by the Israel Action Committee of Temple Israel of Natick. Materials are courtesy of CAMERA, the Committee for Accuracy in Middle East Reporting in America.

In this workshop, you will learn that effective letter writing is easier than you think. Short, succinct letters are often more powerful than long, comprehensive letters and can often be written quickly. CAMERA has developed a procedure which will be used by participants to respond to a recent item. You'll quickly feel comfortable using the same procedure to produce your own, personal letters.

Israel Advocacy and Confronting Media Bias* will feature Alan Stein, Ph.D., founder of PRIMER-Massachusetts. CAMERA has three times awarded Dr. Stein Honorable Mention, Letter Writer of the Year. Stein is a member of a special CAMERA committee which developed the materials to be used in this workshop and future sessions in the United States, Canada and Israel. Alan is President Emeritus of PRIMER-Connecticut and a resident of Natick, Massachusetts and Netanya, Israel.

For more information, check the PRIMER-Massachusetts website <http://primerma.org>.

To register, to make sure updated information about the workshop is sent to you or to have information sent to someone you think may be interested, email info@primerma.org.